JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: Thirty six (36) months.

The Court ORDERS the defendant to pay to the United States a special assessment of $500.00, to the Clerk of the Court, which is due immediately.

Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $6,712,724.85 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

A partial payment of at least $64,500 shall be paid immediately. Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendants' gross monthly income, but not less than $100, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision.

Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-defendants, Christopher Iruke, Darawan Vasquez, Aura Marroquin and Jummal Ibrahim for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victim's recovery is limited to the amount of its loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victim receives full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U. S. C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest.

Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U. S. C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, CONNIE IKPOH, is, hereby, committed on Counts 1, 6, 7, 8, and 9 of the 18 Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 36 months. This term consists of 36 months on each of Counts 1, 6, 7, 8, and 9 of the 18 Count Indictment, to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 1, 6, 7, 8, and 9 of the 18 Count Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02.
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.
4. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, or employee in any business owned or managed by a family member, in any business involving medicare claims. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client list and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall not engage, as employee or otherwise, in any business involving medicare claims, without approval of the supervising Probation Officer and notification to the employer of this conviction.
6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12noon, on JUNE 27, 2012. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

Justification is as stated today on the record. The Court informs the defendant of her right to appeal. Bond exonerated upon surrender.

with government counsel to discuss all financial records. The Court hereby gives notice to all counsel that Mr. Mark Waecker will be relieved as counsel for this defendant after the meeting occurs.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed.
